Rooted in South Africa, Reaching the World

ShellNest is a South African agricultural export company specialising in premium, ethically sourced products from the heart of our nation's richest farming regions.

Founded with a deep respect for South Africa's agricultural heritage, ShellNest bridges the gap between local farmers and global markets. Our name reflects our core philosophy: like a shell that protects what is precious, and a nest that nurtures growth, we safeguard the quality and integrity of every product that bears our name.

We are building collaborative relationships with farming communities across South Africa's key agricultural regions to source the finest rooibos tea, honeybush tea, and macadamia nuts. Each product is selected for its exceptional quality, sustainability credentials, and authenticity.

> "We don't just export products. We export the story of South African soil, sun, and dedication."

Our commitment extends beyond commerce. We believe in fair trade practices, environmental stewardship, and empowering the communities that make our products possible. Every export shipment carries with it the pride and craftsmanship of generations of South African farmers.

Our Mission

To connect the world with South Africa's finest agricultural treasures through ethical sourcing, premium quality standards, and reliable export partnerships.

Our Vision

To become a trusted name in South African agricultural exports, recognised for quality, sustainability, and community impact.

02 — OUR PRODUCTS

South Africa's Finest, Export-Ready

Rooibos Tea

Harvested from the Cederberg mountains. Naturally caffeine-free, rich in antioxidants, and uniquely South African. Available in bulk loose-leaf and packaged formats.

SOUTH AFRICAN ORIGIN

Honeybush Tea

A naturally sweet herbal tea from the fynbos region. Low in tannins with a distinctive honey-like flavour. Perfect for health-conscious global markets. Organic options available.

SOUTH AFRICAN ORIGIN

Macadamia Nuts

Premium-grade macadamia nuts from South Africa's subtropical regions. South Africa is the world's largest producer. Available whole, halved, or processed. Raw and roasted options.

SOUTH AFRICAN ORIGIN

Quality at Every Stage

Every product undergoes quality checks from farm to port through our certified facility partners. We are committed to full traceability, ensuring our buyers receive products that meet international food safety standards.

03 — HOW WE WORK

From Farm to Global Market

Our streamlined export process ensures your products arrive on time, in perfect condition, and fully compliant with international trade regulations.

01 Sourcing & Selection

We are building direct relationships with selected farms across South Africa's key agricultural regions, focusing on products that meet premium quality criteria.

02 Quality Assurance & Testing

We work with our certified facility partners to ensure testing for purity, freshness, and compliance with destination country regulations, including EU, US, and Asian standards.

03 Processing & Packaging

Products are processed and packaged through our certified facility partners. Custom packaging and private labelling options are available for wholesale buyers.

04 Documentation & Compliance

We coordinate all export documentation: phytosanitary certificates, certificates of origin, invoices, packing lists, and customs declarations.

05 Shipping & Delivery

We coordinate logistics through major South African ports (Durban, Cape Town) with reliable freight partners for sea and air cargo worldwide.

04 — WHY SHELLNEST

Collaborative Producer Relationships

Building direct relationships with farming communities for fair prices and verified product provenance.

Commitment to Traceability

Our goal is full supply chain transparency, tracking products from origin to destination as our partnerships mature.

Flexible Order Sizes

From samples to full container loads. We serve businesses of all sizes.

Compliance Expertise

We navigate international trade regulations. EU, US, Middle East, and Asia covered.

05 — GET IN TOUCH
