WELLNESS & CORPORATE GIFTING

Company Profile

Curated South African wellness experiences for the people who power your business.

PREMIUM · CONSIDERED · PROUDLY SOUTH AFRICAN

Wellness, Thoughtfully Gifted

ShellNest Wellness & Corporate Gifting brings together South Africa's finest natural products into curated gift experiences for employee wellness, client appreciation, and corporate gifting.

The same rooibos, honeybush, and macadamia that we supply to international markets form the heart of our gifting range. Every box is built around products with a genuine sense of place, sourced through trusted South African producer partnerships and presented with care.

We design gifting that feels considered rather than corporate. Calm, premium, and modern, each experience is intended to make the recipient feel valued, whether they are a team member, a long-standing client, or a partner you want to thank.

"A good gift says more than words. It says you were thought about."

From single appreciation gifts to large employee wellness rollouts, we handle curation, packaging, and delivery, so the gesture lands beautifully and the effort stays invisible. Boxes can be tailored to your brand, occasion, and budget.

Genuinely South African

Rooibos, honeybush, and macadamia carry a real sense of origin. We work closely with established South African producers to ensure consistent quality in every box.

Calm, Premium Design

Clean, modern, corporate-friendly packaging that feels generous without being loud. Designed to reflect well on the brand that sends it.

Fully Customisable

Add your logo, a branded card, or a personal message. Tailor the contents and price point to the occasion, from modest thank-yous to premium executive gifts.

Built for Scale

From a single gift to hundreds of boxes for a company-wide rollout, we coordinate curation, packaging, and delivery so the process stays simple for you.

04 - HOW IT WORKS

1. Tell us the occasion. Share who the gift is for, the impression you want to make, your quantity, and your budget.

2. We curate. We propose a box and any branding, then refine it with you until it feels exactly right.

3. We pack with care. Each box is assembled and finished to a premium standard, ready to make an impression.

4. We deliver. We coordinate delivery to one address or many, on the date that matters to you.
